HORNE LLP Sets Not-for-Profit and Government Forum for November 3

RIDGELAND, Miss., Oct. 7, 2010 – HORNE LLP, one of the nation’s top 50 accounting and business advisory firms, will host their first-ever Not-for-Profit and Government Forum on Nov. 3 at The Hilton-Jackson in Jackson, Miss.

“Non-profits and governmental entities are under increased scrutiny by federal, state and local agencies,” said Steve Mulhollen, senior manager at HORNE and event speaker. “It is timely and proper that we provide CFOs and directors of not-for-profit and governmental entities the resources they need to navigate this challenging environment.”

Forum topics will include governance risk and trends, the impact of the Recovery Act on not-for-profit and government organizations, fraud prevention and detection, and a standards update. A round table discussion will provide interactive opportunities among participants. All sessions will be led by HORNE team members along with a guest speaker from McGladrey.

“It’s important to have a not-for-profit and governmental community that’s up-to-date with the most recent risks and trends occurring within the industry,” Mulhollen said.

Attendees can earn up to six hours of complimentary CPE credit. The Not-for-Profit and Government Forum begins at 8:30 a.m. and will conclude at 4 p.m. with a reception to follow. Registration is free and lunch is provided. To register, visit www.horne-llp.com or call Bonney Collins at 601.326.1095.

HORNE is one of the top 50 accounting and business advisory firms in the country, as reported by both Public Accounting Report (PAR) and INSIDE Public Accounting (IPA), and one of the top 10 accounting and business advisory firms in the Southeast. With 13 offices in Mississippi, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Arizona and Texas, the firm serves clients across the nation. For more information on HORNE LLP, visit www.horne-llp.com.
