Gregory D. Anderson, CPA/ABV, CVA

Greg is a partner in the health care practice group of HORNE LLP and concentrates his practice in consulting on income distribution plans for physician group practices; design, implementation and fair market value studies related to hospital/physician employment and other compensation arrangements; and the valuation of medical practices, diagnostic facilities, ambulatory surgery centers and other health care facilities.

He has served on the faculty of programs by the National Association of Certified Valuators and Analysts, the Health Care Compliance Association, the National CPA Healthcare Advisors Association, and the American Health Lawyers Association, and has presented topics on health care valuation, physician compensation and physician self-referral regulation to local and regional chapters of organizations such as the Medical Group Management Association and the Healthcare Financial Management Association. He is a contributing author of BVR's Guide to Healthcare Valuation (Business Valuation Resources, 2009), Health Law Handbook (Thomson Reuters/West, 2010), and BVR's Guide to Physician Practice Valuation (Business Valuation Resources, 2010). He is a co-author of Valuation of a Medical Practice (John Wiley and Sons, Inc., 1999) and has authored and co-authored articles on physician compensation, health care valuation, and regulatory matters in local and regional periodicals.

Greg is a graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi. He is a Certified Public Accountant Accredited in Business Valuation and a Certified Valuation Analyst.
